Case No. EQCE081282

ORDER ON PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

NOW on May 18, 2017 this matter came before the Court for a contested hearing on the Plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction against the Defendants. The injunction sought is for the purpose of restraining the Defendants, during the pendency of this litigation from marketing UV Neutralizer, Harmonized H2O Mosquito, and other "harmonized water" products to Iowans alleged to be in violation of the Iowa Consumer Fraud Act.

The parties were represented by their respective counsel. Mr. Steve St. Clair, Iowa Assistant Attorney General and Ms. Amy Licht, Iowa Assistant Attorney General, appeared on behalf of the Plaintiff. Mr. Todd Lantz appeared on behalf of the Defendants along with named Defendant Dr. Benjamin Taylor Johnson.

The Court, having heard testimony, reviewed the exhibits admitted, reviewed the court file and hearing the arguments of the parties, finds that the motion should be, and is, hereby granted.

The Plaintiff has proven by sufficient evidence that it is necessary to grant the injunction under the Iowa Consumer Fraud Act in order to protect the citizens of Iowa from irreparable harm, financially and health wise, by use of the products of the Defendants specifically set forth in the Plaintiff's motion. The products may jeopardize the health of Iowans by giving a false sense of security, curability and immunity by use of the Defendants' various products alleged to prevent sunburn, mosquito bites, and acne; treat psoriasis, eczema, and joint pain; as well as assists with infertility, thyroid deficiencies and cancel the negative effects of pathogens among the Defendants' various claims.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Defendants are enjoined from marketing, selling, and/or distributing UV Neutralizer, Harmonized H2O Mosquito, and all other "harmonized water" products to Iowans until further order of the Court during the pendency of this action.

No bond is required to be posted by the Plaintiff pursuant to Iowa R. Civ. P. 1.207.
